CELEBRATE THE SEASON WITH US

Aloha Pacific FCU and Hawaii National Guard CU branches on Oahu are ready to welcome the holiday spirit with Santa visits and the Salvation Army Angel Trees.

SANTA AT THREE BRANCHES

Santa Claus will visit APFCU's Main, Waimalu and Waikēle branches to share holiday joy and to listen to Christmas wishes of keiki of all ages.

This is the second year in a row that Santa is stopping by. The schedule:

- December 6, Wednesday: 2–4 p.m. at Main branch
- December 9, Saturday: 9–11 a.m. at Waimalu; and noon–2 p.m. at Waikēle

It's free to visit with Santa and to pose for photos with him. Be sure to bring a camera or smartphone to snap a few photos!

ANGEL TREES

APFCU is partnering again with The Salvation Army to bring cheer to keiki and seniors who are less fortunate.

To participate in the Angel Tree gift giving, visit an APFCU branch on Oahu and pick a Salvation Army tag that lists a holiday wish. Purchase the gift, and bring it back to the branch, unwrapped. We will also gladly accept other unwrapped gifts.

We also will accept cash donations through paper "kettles." Ask at any branch to make the donation. Be sure to fill out your name on the paper "kettle," which will be posted at the branch.

Please bring your unwrapped gifts or make your paper "kettle" donations through December 15.

For more information, go to alohapacific.com.

As part of the celebration, we gave away a Waikēle "staycation," a large-screen TV and gift cards through random drawings. Congratulations to the winners!

APPLY TO BECOME A BOARD CANDIDATE

There's still time to apply for a nomination to run for APFCU's Board of Directors.

You must apply by petition, and submit the completed application and petition with at least 470 signatures of APFCU or HNGCU primary members by January 5.

Four seats are up for election. Members of the board serve two-year terms on a volunteer basis.

Details and the application are online at alohapacific.com (What's New / Community & Events).

A GRAND OPENING TO CELEBRATE WAIMALU

Mahalo to all who attended the November 11 grand opening celebration of our new, bigger and better Waimalu branch!

We hope you enjoyed the taiko drumming, keiki hula, prize wheel and refreshments and had a chance to explore the modern new branch.

Aloha Pacific FCU President & CEO Vince Otsuka congratulates new member Lydia Kahale, the grand prize winner of a Waikēle "staycation" at the Sheraton.
